A. The Word of God is Supernatural.

2 Peter 1:21
(p.1,117)

1. The Bible is supernaturally inspired.

2. The Bible is supernaturally preserved.

“The Bible is not a book of philosophy, though it is philosophical. It is not a scientific treatise, though it is consistent with science. It is not a history book, although it is accurate whenever history is recorded.

“The Bible was given to man by God, revealing the purpose of God in the world; and establishing how man can know God and grow spiritually to become more like Christ.” -Max Anders

B. The Word of God Transforms.

2 Timothy 3:16-17
(p.1,096)

1. Scripture reveals the heart of each of us. Hebrews 4:12

2. Scripture instructs us.

-teaching: what you need to know

-rebuke, correction, training: what you need to be

-equipped for good work: what you need to do

3. Scripture directs us. Psalm 119:105

Scripture is absolute truth.

C. The Written Word is connected with the Living Word.

John 1:1, 14; Revelation 19:11-14 (p.1,139)

If we want to know Jesus, the best way is to spend time with the Word of God.
