See the architects' rendering of the proposed new Triqui church building which we will help build on the community hill side in beautiful Canon Buena Vista, a village approximately 15 miles south of Ensenada Mexico. The designs include planning for indoor and outdoor events and services, a custom of our brothers and sisters of the local church family.

Monte de Jehovah: Mountain of God

Costs:

$1,650.00 which includes $600 airfare allowance (may be subject to change), travel from San Diego to Ensenada, food, transportation, accommodations in San Diego and Mexico, construction materials and tools. We have fundraisers to help offset the costs.

and partner with the church in Mexico and the rest of North America to be involved in missions worldwide. (www.yugo.org)
